PPWEB

PPWEB (PACSPLUS Web-PACS)

PPWeb system provides PACS administrators, radiologists and other physicians with on-demand cost-effective access to clinical images from virtually any location. Patient data can be accessed via a web browser whether you are located on-site at the hospital, at your office, or at home. Only approved users who possess the required credentials can access the Web-PACS system. PPWeb enables teleradiology system through its optimized web-based design.

Features

» View or Diagnose images from anywhere with internet connection.
» Utilize in emergency or off-site diagnosis.
» No need for expensive PACS server client.
» Manage access to images to authorized user only.
» No need for separate installation. (uses web browser plug-in)
» Most economical solution

PACSPLUS SERVER Configuration